

If there should be a change it is that the federal No Call list should be as stringent as the Wisconsin No Call list. Government is the people and 80% of Wisconsin phone holders have signed on to the state's list. This is one of the areas that the Constitution reserves to the state and is not enumerated as one of the federal responsibilities. You have a responsibility to not only maintain the current Wisconsin No Call law but to support it.